DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
2. Claim rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
3. Claim 10 recites the limitation "said reaction" in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
4. Claim 16 recites the limitation "said inlet gas" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
5. Claim 23 recites the limitation "said throttling device" in 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
6. Claim 24 recites the limitation "said valve" in line 5. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
7. Claim 47 recites the limitation "said throttling device" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
8. As to claims 12 and 36, it is vague and unclear as to what the applicant means by "an additional membrane", because the applicant fails to claim a first membrane.
9. As to claims 23 and 47, it is vague and unclear as to what the applicant means by "said throttling device", because the applicant claims has not specified if the throttling device is "a first throttling device" or "a second throttling device".

Double Patenting

10. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

11. Claims 1-47 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-47 of U.S. Patent No. 6,347,627. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the structural limitations set forth in claims 1-47 of the instant application are also claimed in the patent.
